J. F. HINKLE,
Chairman.
C. C. TANNEHILL, Clerk.

The ticket has been named.

A stronger municipal ticket was never before nominated in Roswell.

H. J. Hagerman will go to Chicago as an alternate to the Republican national convention.

Beck and Cummins are well fitted for the positions for which they have been nominated.

The city convention Saturday night was a ratification meeting. The work had been done at the primaries.

The new Mayor will have a strong board of aldermen to support him. These ten men are representative of Roswell's business interests.

Our Republican friends from this county did not cut much of a figure at Las Vegas. The administration had everything its own way.

Men of such high standing have been chosen for the Board of Education that the interests of the public schools will be well protected.

While the second Friday of March is designated as Arbor Day by the laws of New Mexico, the Governor has designated the coming Friday as tree planting day.

Mr. Hinkle's administration will be thoroughly democratic, but at the same time it will be fair to every citizen. No better nomination could have been made.

For the third time Hon. G. A. Richardson of Roswell has been elected President of the Board of Regents of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.

Delegate Rodey announces that it will be useless for citizens of New Mexico to write him for any more seed this year, that he received and distributed in New Mexico five times what he was entitled to, and, therefore, the Department has shut down and will not give him any more.

Delegate Rodey has nominated as midshipman cadet to the United States naval academy at Annapolis, Maryland, as follows: Thomas M. Tipton of Las Vegas, as principal; Charles A. Gildersleeve of Santa Fe, as first alternate; Cyrus J. Leland of Roswell, as second alternate; and Edmund M. Hobart of Silver City as third alternate.

People do a good many mean mean things without thinking. One of the meanest is to tell a man what others say about him. Every one should know that someone dislikes him, and abuses him. But it is thoughtless, if not mean to tell him about it. People abuse you, and if you don't hear about it it is because your friends are too genteel to tell you of it.—Atchison Globe.

The Republican machine ran rough shod over the major portion of the delegates at the Las Vegas convention. The delegation sent to Chicago is an exclusive office-holder delegation. The machine had so willed it. It was useless for anyone not an office holder to apply. Look at the list: Otero, Governor; Sargent, Auditor; Bursum, Superintendent of the Penitentiary; Dame, Clerk of Second District Court; Llewellyn and Leahy are District Attorneys. So there you are. Now isn't that a delegation to excite enthusiasm in Republican ranks.

THE MERGER CASE.

Hon. G. A. Richardson of this city was in Washington at the time the Northern Securities case was argued and heard the argument of Attorney General Knox before the court. He at the time was impressed with the strong presentation of the case that Knox made for the government, although from a legal point of view he regarded the other side with favor. Today Mr. Richardson received a letter from Hon. A. C. Campbell, attorney in the Department of the Interior, and who is well known in this part of New Mexico. In commenting on the decision, Mr. Campbell closes his letter as follows:

"I was present in court today and heard the decisions in the 'merger case.' They were more interesting than the arguments. White spoke without manuscript, and his dissenting opinion was one of the most impressive deliverances I have ever heard anywhere. His logic to my mind was unanswerable. White will live in history as one of the greatest lawyers that ever sat on that bench. Those who do not agree with him are forced to admit his great ability. Whatever doubts I have ever entertained in respect to the case vanished when I heard White."

Emory A. Rolfe Returns.

Emory A. Rolfe, of Dayton, Iowa, who was here some months ago has returned to the city and will be here for several days. He is the editor of the Dayton Review, and some months ago he had an extended article in his paper on Roswell and the Pecos Valley, which was well written and very complimentary.

A letter has been received from Charles B. Harris, Jr., who left here several days ago for Los Angeles, California, and he says he is carried away with Los Angeles. He came here from Scottsville, Virginia, about eighteen months ago for the benefit of his health. He fully recovered here when it was thought that he could live only a few hours. His case is one of the most remarkable in the history of the cure in the entire Pecos Valley.

In Northern Wisconsin are many tracts of land admirably adapted to the homeseeker. In former timber tracts are many cultivated farms worth $50 to $75 an acre. Adjoining them, enjoying the same advantages, are unimproved farms for $7 to $20 an acre. Why not take a trip there and investigate these openings for yourself? Additional information on request.

A NEW STUDIO.

On Fourth Street Will be Completed Soon.—A Credit to the City.

T. J. Ray has about completed the new photograph gallery, and it will be the most up-to-date building of this kind in the territory and a credit to the city. The gallery is located on Fourth street at the rear of the Christian church, opposite the Frost studio. There will be seven rooms in the building and it will be fitted with all the modern conveniences of the photographic art. Mr. Ray is an old-time photographer, but he will not have the active management of the business. It will be in charge of Tom Hinson who is now employed at the Wilkinson studio on Main street. The Record wishes Messrs. Ray and Hinson success in their new undertaking.

It will be remembered that Gustavus Myers, a distinguished writer of New York City, was here a few weeks ago to write a sketch of Roswell for the New York Post and for Success. In the New York Post of March 7th he has a column article recounting the well known advantages and beauties of the Valley and the town of Roswell. In closing he says:

"The Pecos Valley, in fact, now shows a population almost wholly American. From present indications the Valley will be the largest and finest fruit belt in the United States (not even excepting the San Joaquin Valley in California) for all varieties of fruit with the exception of the orange and the lemon, the culture of which has not been attempted here."

The Army Prosperous.

The crowds and the collections at the Salvation Army seem to keep up fine, and it is an evidence that the people are not tired of this organization up to the present time. A bystander at the meeting last night remarked that the Salvation Army had been in El Paso for ten years, and they were supported by the saloon element and the gamblers of that city. He continued and said that the reason for the saloon men being friendly to the Army was that they would stand on the streets and advise the people to be good and lead correct lives, but they would not take any aggressive action towards closing the saloons. The saloon element of this city also liberally contributes to the Army.

Major Vivian and Daughters Leave.

Major Vivian and two daughters, Misses Sheffa Marie and Virginia, of Kansas City, who have been here for some weeks, left Saturday afternoon for Artesia, where they will be the guests of Mrs. J. H. Beckham, Jr., for some weeks. The young ladies are both very charming and beautiful, and made many friends during their stay in the city. Major Vivian is a retired capitalist, and he will likely invest in the valley.

Will Locate at Hagerman.

A. W. Jones, a prominent young lumberman of Sawyer, Kansas, who has been in the Valley for several days, left yesterday morning for his home. He will return in a few weeks and will locate at Hagerman. He has not decided as to what business he will undertake.

Dr. W. D. Matthews Leaves.

Dr. W. D. Matthews, the manager of the El Paso branch of the New York Life Insurance Company, who has been here for several days visiting the local agency, left Saturday afternoon for El Paso. He was formerly a newspaper man, and his last newspaper property was the Arkansas State Republican at Little Rock. He is familiarly known as the "Old Man" and is the author of the booklet "Ups and Downs of a Newspaper Fellow."
